

INTERIOR DESIGN[®]

OCTOBER 31
2016

eye-catching

fall market tabloid

Philippe Starck
for Cassina

product Caprice

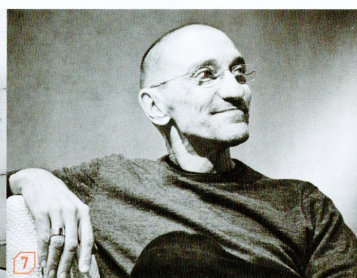

standout The designer's 2007 hit gets a workplace twist with a tulip or four-spoke swivel base, matte-finish shell, and quilted or smooth padded upholstery. cassina.com. circle 256

Jon Gasca
of STUA

product Costura

standout An homage to Gasca's late grandmother, a Balenciaga seamstress (costura is Spanish for "seam"), the upholstered chair on molded plywood frame features an inviting doubled-up-pillow back and impeccable tailoring. Through Design Within Reach, dwr.com. circle 257

Rodolfo Dordoni
for Minotti

product Freeman Tailor

standout Memory foam meets goose down in an eminently cossetting modular sectional whose stitching detail recalls that of a duvet. minotti-la.com. circle 258

Philip Caggiano
of Philip Caggiano

product Razor Rocker

standout Occupants young and old will enjoy the therapeutic sensory chair: Its colorful polyurethane wheels will keep kids enthralled, and adults will appreciate its knack for massaging tired muscles. philipcaggiano.com. circle 259