

LUXURY

LUXURY MAGAZINE

WINTER 2016

OUTSIDE JOB

Not every winter home sees snowfall. This selection of items offers some great ways to make lounging, playing, and entertaining in warmer climes as stylish as can be, whether your escape is in Cabo or the Caribbean.

by JORGE S. ARANGO

Brazilian firm Incausa works with women of the Yawalapiti tribe in the Amazon to produce hammocks made of either buriche palm or cotton (the latter usually reserved for chiefs). Maison Numen, $680, maisonnumen.com.

Designed by Marella Ferrera, each 39-by-39-by-11-inch Sciara table (three are combined here) features artisan-made lavastone tiles set on a steel acid-etched base. ddc, $5,050, ddcnyc.com.

Lauren Hastings and Fred Studlo's party cup is made of copper-plated steel and holds 16 ounces of your favorite beverage. MoMA Store, $16, momastore.com.

The chaise from this new Indiana collection is made of sturdy African iroko wood (available natural or dark-brown stained) and covered in macro woven polypropylene webbing that comes in bamboo, stone, and moka. Minotti, $12,080, minotti-la.com.